VREDE EN LUST

CASEY'S RIDGE EARLY MIST RIESLING 2016

A highly terroir expressive cultivar, this Riesling is produced in a typical German kabinett style with a off-dry residual sugar.

The fruit for this wine is sourced from the Vrede en Lust Elgin farm, Casey's Ridge.
Most Rieslings are consumed when they are young showing the most aromatic characteristics.

Winemakers Notes:
The wine was fermented at very low temperatures in stainless steel tanks. Fermentation was stopped at the desired sugar levels, resulting in an elegant, off-dry style wine.

Tasting Notes:
The Riesling is an elegantly styled and fragrant wine with notes of honey and minerals followed by lingering citrus flavours.
The Early Mist Riesling will be the perfect match for hot and cold smoked salmon or smoked trout.
